

Summary

Jean McEachern v. Waldale Manufacturing Ltd.

No. 51000-30-H10-2216

The Complainant, Jean McEachern, filed a complaint under the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act alleging that the Respondent, Waldale Manufacturing Ltd., discriminated against her in the matter of employment due to her mental disability stating that she was not accommodated to take time off. The Respondent did not feel they were adequately advised of the disability. A settlement agreement was reached for general damages.
