

Summary

Debbie McLaren v. Atlantic Building Cleaning Ltd. (now GDI Integrated Facility Services)

No. 51000-30-H12-1736

The Complainant, Debbie McLaren, filed a complaint under the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act alleging that the Respondent, Atlantic Building Cleaning Ltd., discriminated against her in the matter of employment due to her physical disability by not accommodating her request for light duty work because of a ganglion cyst on her wrist. She was eventually terminated from her employment. The Respondent did not admit allegations, but a settlement agreement was reached in which Ms. McLaren received general damages.
